She is an accomplished c-suite and board level business advisor with over a decade of experience advising private equity owned companies, and regularly participating in their board and audit committee meetings as well as serving as a corporate secretary. In addition to her private equity world experience, she has served as General Counsel and legal advisor for another twenty years advising Fortune 500 and private companies in numerous industries. Having worked and advised businesses across multiple industries, she is able to draw upon a wide range of experiences. She has developed a deep expertise in identifying, evaluating and mitigating risks as a business advisor to boards and senior management in dynamically changing business and regulatory environments. She has a proven track record of creating and leading compliance and legal functions to scale for growth.

As Chief Legal Officer at PE backed company, she advises senior management in solving complex problems and mitigating risks while aligning those solutions with business objectives to drive shareholder value. She created a state-of-the-art law function in preparation of hypergrowth and has prepared this PE-owned company for an exit transaction.

Prior to PE backed company, as General Counsel for another PE backed company, board candidate notably and successfully led the negotiation with a government agency threatening to shut down the company's operations. She also led the team responsible for ensuring compliance with the government's requirements were met while production continued with a successful sale of the company several months later.

At yet another PE backed company, she was instrumental in the international expansion of the company. Her role not only encompassed providing legal and regulatory advice; she successfully led the international operations team and increased shareholder value by ensuring that over 75 cell towers were timely built in three foreign countries over an 18-month period.

She is a proud Latin woman and fluently bilingual in Spanish. Candidate loves fine contemporary art and recently received two certificates from the Sotheby's Art Institute in contemporary art studies. Currently, she is also auditing courses at the Laguna College of Art & Design.
